

To WHOM This MESSAGE MIGHT HEIP.

My NAME is Khan sadam biland, I am 26 Years old, from Pakistan, was a successful drug dealer until I was arrested the 29th June, 2015. I have ahead of me a real long time to stay in Prison. I am most likely going to be sentenced to serve from 10 to 12 years.

My mother Died when I was 7 Years old and my father Became Disabled in a minibus Accident when I was 12, so since a Young Kid felt the need of feeling accepted and making money. I started to hang out with Bad People And that took me in And out of juvenile Person. Following the way this criminal career Became the only thing that I was good at and I started to make A lot of money, I used to spend 30K HKD a night, Go on 100,K shopping sprees People around me used to respect me, etc... I thought that I was untouchable and that "I made it" until The Police came knocking to the door of my hotel room. thats when my Young free life ended. Now I only get an hour a day of fresh Air, I sleep in a small Room and the food is awful, I am going to be in here for a long time for the mistakes that I did while I was free.

I would like to advise those that are doing this type of Bussiness that the money is not worth your freedom and causing Pain to those who Love and care about you. The worst suferers are not the ones in here. But the loved ones outside. Being a drug dealer is a fake dream a very attractive Path to selfdestruction, I beg for your sake, The sake of your Loved ones, for the sake of the drug addicted souls in Hong Kong and their loved ones to give up trafficking dangerous drugs and turn back while you're still on the edge of Avoiding Prison time. save yourselves from the deep and evil world of drug trafficking because once it's to late there is no way out. I hope not to meet you in Prison.

ATT. KHAN SADAMBILAND.
